2011 DOW Vintage Port, 750 ml, $92.99/$84.99/$76.49

Here is an excerpt from Kim Marcus' Wine Spectator review: "For its combination of power, quality and fair price, and for being the best of the best of an amazing vintage, the 2011 Dow's Vintage Port is Wine Spectator's 2014 Wine of the Year. This profile, enjoyable younger than is the norm, truly represents the modern style of Port. Wait at least until 2020 to crack open the 2011, though it will live much, much longer. As the fruit, sweetness, tannins and alcohols evolve, they will reach their climax in the sublime hedonism of a mature Vintage Port. Powerful, refined and luscious, with a surplus of dark plum, kirsch and cassis flavors that are unctuous and long. Shows plenty of grip, presenting a long, full finish, filled with Asian spice and raspberry tart accents. Rich and chocolaty. One for the ages. Best from 2030 through 2060."

Cheers & Enjoy!

Red Wines

2011 Figgins Estate Red Wine Walla Walla Valley $112.99/$97.99/$88.19

“A blend of Cabernet Sauvignon, Petit Verdot and Merlot, the 2011 Figgins Estate Red is excellent in the vintage, with classic crème de cassis, lead pencil shavings, tobacco, bay leaf and toast giving way to a medium to full-bodied, elegant and seamless 2011 that has good concentration, plenty of sweet fruit and building tannin that emerges with more time in the glass. Classy, elegant and streamlined, it’s already approachable, but will be better in another couple years and drink nicely through 2026.”

–Wine Advocate, 93 points New item. Winemaker for Leonetti Cellar.

2009 Cadence Taptail Vineyard Red Mountain $49.99/$41.99/$37.79

“An up-front, deliciously textured blend of 57% Cabernet Sauvignon, 26% Merlot and 17% Cabernet Franc that’s overflowing with bright plum, violets, wild herbs, pepper and wet stone minerality on the nose. Voluptuous, rich and seamless, with superb purity of fruit, it’s a mouth full of fruit for upwards of a decade. Drink now-2023.”

–Wine Advocate, 93 points

2009 Fort Walla Walla Cellars Cabernet Sauvignon Walla Walla Valley $38.99/$32.69/$28.99

“Smooth and well balanced. It’s elegant, with savory plum and currant fruit. Rich aromas of coffee, chocolate mocha and a hint of vanilla. Soft tannins that provide a lovely finish. The oak cooperage complements but does not overwhelm the fruit. 87% Cabernet Sauvignon and 13% Merlot.”–Winemaker notes. New vintage.

2010 Adriano Marco & Vittorio Basarin Nebbiolo Barbaresco Piedmont Italy $34.99/$27.99/$25.10

“The cherry and plum flavors are matched by savory, licorice and mineral notes in this taut, sinewy version. Dense and concentrated, with lively acidity and energy on the finish. Presents a fine aftertaste of fruit, spice and mineral. Best from 2017 through 2028. “

- Wine Spectator, 92 points. New item.

2012 Darby ‘The Dark Side’ Syrah Columbia Valley $29.99/$26.19/$23.57

Comprised of 70% Grenache, 25% Syrah and 5% Mourvèdre, this medium-bodied, sweetly fruited and textured effort should be enjoyed now through 2020.”

2012 Evening Land Seven Springs Vineyard Gamay Noir Eola-Amity Hills $30.99/$22.39/$20.15

“Seven Springs was originally developed in the 1980s as the Oregon wine industry was beginning to take shape. As a result, we have some of the oldest vines planted in the Eola-Amity Hills and our Gamay is among the original plantings that date back to 1983. A very small block, we believe this may be the first commercial planting of the Gamay Noir grape in the United States.” –Winemaker notes. New vintage.
