Red Wines

2014 Caymus Cabernet Sauvignon Napa Valley
$87.99/$75.99//$68.39

“The 2014 growing season was another great one in Napa Valley. Our Cabernets are a blend of wines from eight of the sixteen sub-appellations—a bottling that represents complexity through judicious blending. Vibrant scent of dark cherry and blackberry, subtly layered with warm notes of vanilla. The palate is explosive, bright and balanced with cassis at the center, with flourishes of cocoa and sweet tobacco.” -Winemaker notes. New vintage.

2012 El Pedrosal Crianza Tempranillo Ribera Del Duero
$21.99/$18.69/$16.82

“A wine that is not sold in Spain, the 2012 El Pedrosal is balanced with plenty of spicy notes from the oak and very classical with elegant rusticity, character and poise. The palate is very balanced with some lactic and dill-like flavors, fine acidity and soft tannins. Very pleasant and easy to drink now through 2019.”
 -Wine Advocate, 90 points. New item.

2014 Charles Smith Boom Boom Syrah Columbia Valley
$21.99/$12.99/$11.69

“I can tell you this. It is the best Boom Boom! thus far. Complexity, tannins inferior to none. Blackberry, boysenberry, dry-hung meat, white pepper, savory herbs, crushed granite. Need I say more? I think not. 97% Syrah and 3% Viognier.” -Winemaker notes. New vintage.

2014 Charles Smith Velvet Devil Merlot Columbia Valley
$19.99/$12.99/$11.69

“This little devil is wrapped in a velvet robe. Full with density and bursting with flavor. Dark fruit, cherry, blackberry. Brimming with cedar, pipe tobacco and earth. Truth in a name: Velvet. 94% Merlot, 3% Cabernet Sauvignon, 2% Malbec, 1% Cabernet Franc. Pairs well with roasted pork and grilled steaks.” -Winemaker notes. New item.

2012 Bodegas Sur de los Andes Malbec Reserva Mendoza
$16.99/$11.19/$10.07

“Aromas of blackberry, balsam wood, lemony oak and forest floor lead into a fully stocked, hefty palate. Flavors of black fruits, licorice, herbs and oak finish bright but level. What this lacks in complexity is made up for in ripe berry flavors and overall balance.”
 - Wine Enthusiast, 90 points. New item.

2015 Christopher Michael Pinot Noir Oregon
$13.99/$10.29/$9.26

From their childhood escapades with lemonade stands and wood-working shop sales, brothers Eric Christopher and Ryan Michael Harms have long held the spark of entrepreneurial spirit. In business together since 2009, they work with growers that farm sustainably, and seek out the best expressions of their grapes. What matters to the brothers behind Christopher Michael Wines is finding fruit that will make a delicious wine, regardless of varietal or origin. New vintage.

2015 Domaine des Lauribert Rouge Vin de Pays de Vaucluse
$9.99/$6.99/$6.29

“100% Grenache. Traditional wine-making process, wine made from free-run juice. Clear, bright, deep red color with pale purple highlights. Pleasant aromas that are intense and complex for a vin de pays. Strongly marked by red forest fruits. Fresh, intense mouth, evolving toward a harmonious balance of forest fruits.”

2015 Marchetti Verdicchio dei Castelli di Jesi Italy
$18.99/$14.99/$13.49

“It could be said that Verdicchio is a thinking person’s Pinot Grigio. Refreshing citrus fruits, playful acidity and complex minerality are the hallmarks of this varietal. Incredibly, this wine is all free-run juice (no pressing!), and as a Classico, is the best example in its class we have ever tried. Marchetti’s family has been making Verdicchio for generations, and it shows.” -Small Vineyards. New vintage.

2013 Monte Tondo Soave Classico $19.99/$13.99/$12.59

“What Gino Magnabosco and his daughter, Marta, are doing with the Garganega grape is nothing short of amazing. Winners of a Tre Bicchieri award, Monte Tondo is a true family affair that is on the cutting edge of white winemaking in Italia. This Soave is bristling and clean, flinty and fragrant, with terrific notes of granite, citrus, green apple and ripe mango. A truly wonderful wine.”
