2014 Megan Anne Cellars Pinot Noir Willamette Valley ($37.99)

Mark McNeilly has started his own wine program in Oregon. "The wine expresses classic Willamette Valley terroir with an easy drinkability right now and a potential to develop even more complexity with cellaring. The Willamette Valley Pinot Noir is kind of like 'The Dissident' for the Mark Ryan program. It's a nice entry level wine and price point. Only 182 cases were produced." -Mark McNeilly.

2012 Losada Vinos de Finca Bierzo Spain ($20.59)

"This polished red offers black cherry, blackberry, blood orange and vanilla flavors, fresh and expressive, with light, firm tannins and tangerine acidity. Shows density and balance, ending with an enticing floral finish. Drink now through 2022." -Wine Spectator, 92-points.

2015 Domaine Laroque Cabernet Franc Cité de Carcassonne ($7.49)

A delightful fusion of a juicy Right Bank Bordeaux and a top notch, herbal Corbières rouge. Aromas of cassis, tobacco, wild herb and tar. The wine tenses mid-palate to reveal plentiful fine, food-friendly tannins, balancing acidity and a dusty limestone soil signature that enliven the wine's chewy currant fruit profile. A Leschi Tasting Panel steal.
